

I believe that if you do away with the indiana law of the no call list it will be a astronomical error on your behalf and I for one will be very disappointed that my well-deserved privacy will once again be invaded by total strangers. I can only hope that others like me and my husband do the right thing and let you know how much we have enjoyed the freedom from interruption and hassle from the telemarketers.
Sincerely, Mr. and Mrs. Gale